BASKETBALL STINGERS WIN 7TH STRAIGHT

The Concordia Stingers men's basketball team won for the 7th time in as many starts last Friday at McGill downing the Redmen 81-72; but it wasn't easy.

The Stingers trailed 51-40 at half-time and only took the lead in the game with less than four minutes to play. Rob Latter pumped in 31 points from in close and Craig Norman hit for 30 from the outside to lead the Concordia rally.

Concordia, currently ranked second in the nation, improved to 17-2 overall this season.

In women's play the McGill Martlets handed the Stingers their 22nd straight loss of the season beating them 72-45 in the preliminary game. Both Concordia teams will play at Bishop's this Friday with the women's game scheduled for 6:30 p.m. and the men's for 8:30 p.m.
